MONETARY MATTERS IN NEW YORK AND SAN FRANCISCO.

New York Money Market.

New York, March 6, 1880.
Money was ease at 65¢ per cent. on call, and closed at 65¢.

Exchange was firm at 481 to 481½ for long and at 475½ for short sight.

Governments were quiet, but generally firm.

Balloon bonds were buoyant for the Chesapeake & Ohio issues, which advanced, under large purchases, from 69½ to 70½ for first series B and from 70½ to 71 for second series B. The issues were 165 per cent. higher, figures selling up to 44, supplementally 80½ and Trust Company's certificates, as well as 80½. First series seconds were firm at 91½ to 91¾, while do, funded five fell off to 50½. Canada Southern first sold at 91½ to 92, and second at 91½ to 92. Texas and Pacific first sold at 105½ to 106, and second at 105½ to 106. Ohio and Union Pacific (Springfield division) rose to 115½ to 116, and second at 115½ to 116. Minnie income rises 2 per cent. to 72½.

The stock market was buoyant throughout the day. The general list advanced 3½ to 4½ per cent., and the leading Eastern stocks, except & Ohio, were strong and advanced sharply on the pending negotiations to make it a through trunk line to the West; Pacific, Matl, & Ohio, and C. & O. were the leaders. The market was in the upward movement. Mobile & Ohio rose on large sales, induced by an official report that an extension was being considered with the Northern and Eastern, giving a connection with the Northern and Lake and Northwestern system. It was also reported that the road is about to be consolidated with the latter.
